10 of the hottest hotel openings in October

Walker Hotel Tribeca, New York

There's a newcomer to New York City's Downtown hotel scene. Boutique brand Walker Hotels' latest outpost in Tribeca will offer loft-style rooms, converted from old warehouses and done in a clean and trendy aesthetic. Don't expect plenty of space – even the Corner King and Queen rooms will place you snugly against the windows – but it helps that some rooms look out to Cortlandt Alley, dubbed 'the most filmed alley in New York' (its pop culture credits include Gotham, Smurfs and even a Vampire Weekend music video). Other creature comforts include marble-lined bathrooms and a Blue Bottle Coffee on the ground floor.
